

Customer Support Specialist – Help Our Customers Succeed!

Are you passionate about delivering exceptional customer experiences? Do you enjoy helping others succeed while working with a highly collaborative team? If so, you might be our next Customer Support Specialist!

At Emplay, we help businesses get the most out of their HR platform. As a Customer Support Specialist, your role is to support and guide our customers' superusers—the key individuals responsible for their company's daily platform operations. You will act as their trusted advisor, helping them navigate challenges, optimize workflows, and achieve their HR goals.

Emplay is a highly advanced, cloud-based HR solution designed to streamline recruitment, onboarding, and HR operations. This is a specialist role where you will develop in-depth expertise in our platform, advising superusers on complex configurations, troubleshooting technical challenges, and ensuring they get the most out of our system. Your ability to understand technical setups, analyze customer needs, and bridge the gap between users and our technical team will be key to success in this role.

What you'll do

- Provide outstanding customer support via phone and email.
- Listen actively and gather valuable feedback from users.
- Assist in onboarding new customers alongside our implementation team.
- Help customers achieve their vision and maximize the platform's potential.
- Act as a bridge between customers and our technical team, ensuring seamless communication.

About You

- Great communicator – You can talk to anyone, from everyday users to executives.
- Team player – You thrive in a collaborative environment across different teams.
- Tech-curious – You enjoy learning new systems
- Customer-focused – You genuinely care about helping others succeed.
- Fluent in Danish & English – You can communicate professionally in both languages.
